Using this Book

Knitting Made Easy is written for beginners, and features easy-to-understand diagrams and step-by-step instructions to illustrate knitting stitches and techniques. When you have mastered the basic techniques, try the projects included in this book—they’re designed especially for beginners!

Products
All of the projects in this book were designed and made with products from Coats & Clark—featuring Red Heart yarns.

General information is included about yarn, knitting needles and tools. We recommend reading through the book to become familiar with terminology before picking up your needles and yarn. When you’re ready to knit, use a Medium Worsted Weight yarn (size 4 on the chart on the next page) and a pair of 5 mm (US-8) or 5.5 mm (US-9) knitting needles.

Diagrams and Instructions
Because knitting involves using both hands, it is usually not necessary to teach left handers a different technique. However, if you’re having trouble, you might also try substituting "left" for "right" and "right" for "left" where applicable.

Yarn
Yarns are available in a variety of weights (weight refers to the thickness of the strand) and fiber contents. Yarn comes in either a long center-pull skein or a ball. The weight of the skein or ball and the total yardage is determined by the weight of the strand of yarn.

There are six standard yarn weight groups determined by the Craft Yarn Council of America, and the weights are denoted with a number and symbol.

Quantities of yarn stated are based on standard measurements and should be considered approximate. It is always best to buy an extra few ounces (or a whole skein) of yarn to make sure you have enough.

Dye Lots
Yarns are available in many different thicknesses, twists and finishes. For best results, we recommend that you use the yarn specified in the instructions. Be sure to purchase all the yarn you need for a single project at the same time, as different dye lots may vary subtly in shading and this will show on the finished item. If you are combining different types of yarn in the same project, make sure they have similar washing instructions. Care instructions are found on the product label—follow them carefully. And always make sure you make a swatch to measure the gauge—more on that later.
Yarn Record
Keep the ball bands from yarn to use as reference. Pin the band to the gauge swatch and keep them both together with any remaining yarn from the project. Also include spare buttons and any extra trim used in the project, and tuck everything in a labeled zip-close plastic bag. This way, you’ll be able to check the washing instructions of the yarn, and you’ll always have extra materials on hand for repairs.

Equipment
Knitting needles are used in pairs to produce a flat knitted fabric and come in a range of sizes based on the diameter. They are usually made from aluminum or plastic, but are also available in wood and bamboo. Because all of the working stitches are “live” and are held on the needles as you work, knitting needles come in two standard lengths—10” and 14”.

Circular and double-pointed needles are used to produce a tubular fabric (such as hats, socks and traditional Aran sweaters). Circular needles consist of short needles that are attached to each end of a flexible cable. Circular needles can also be used for flat knitted projects. As a matter of fact, some people prefer using them for all of their knitting. Double-pointed needles, as their name implies, are short needles with points on each ends, and are usually sold in sets of four or five.

If you are having difficulty obtaining gauge or working smoothly with a particular type of yarn, consider changing the type of needles you are using. Try several different needle styles to find what you’re most often comfortable with.

Accessories
Cable needles are short double-pointed needles that are used to temporarily hold stitches when knitting cables. A cable needle may be shaped like the letter “J” or it may be straight with a groove or bump in the center (sometimes referred to as a “flying goose”) to prevent the stitches from slipping off.

Stitch holders resemble large coil-less safety pins and are used to hold stitches when they are not being worked (such as a neckline where the stitches will be picked up at finishing to make the neck band).

Other miscellaneous tools include stitch markers, yarn needles, gauge checkers, measuring tapes and yarn pins.
Making a Slip Knot
A slip knot is the starting point for just about everything you’ll do in knitting. It is also the basis for all casting on methods.

1. Make a circle with yarn or thread.
2. Pull a loop through the circle.
3. Insert the needle into the loop.
4. Pull the loop gently and evenly to tighten and slide the knot up to the needle.

Holding the Needles
The right needle is held as if holding a knife. The left needle is held lightly in the same position, with the needle tips pointing toward each other.

Holding the Yarn
There are various methods of winding the yarn around the fingers to control the tension and produce even stitches. This method works well once you are comfortable making stitches.

Holding the yarn in your right hand, pass it between the third finger and the pinky. Wind the yarn over the third finger, under the second finger and over the index finger. Winding the yarn around your fingers creates the tension that is necessary for producing even knitting.
Casting On
There are many ways to cast on—here are two popular methods.

Backwards Loop Method
This is the easiest method of casting on, but the edge might not be suitable for all projects.

1. With the slip knot on the needle, wrap yarn around your index finger as shown. Insert tip of needle in loop.

2. Remove finger and pull yarn gently to snug loop around needle. If loops on needle are too tight, you will not be able to knit into these stitches, so practice until loops are consistent.

Long-Tail Cast On (also called Thumb Method)
This method of casting on produces a very elastic edge, which is particularly useful when followed by garter stitch or stockinette stitch.

1. Check the number of stitches the pattern requires to be cast on. Measure approximately 1” of yarn for each stitch and make a slip knot at this point. For example, if the pattern calls for you to cast on 100 stitches, pull out approximately 100” of yarn. For this method of casting on, it is always better to err on the side of pulling out too much yarn rather than too little!

Hold the needle with the slip knot in your right hand, and hold the ball end of the yarn parallel to the needle. * Wind the loose end of the yarn around your left thumb from front to back.
2. Insert the needle through the yarn on your thumb.

3. With your right index finger, wrap the ball end of the yarn over the needle point.

4. Pull a loop through to form the first stitch.

5. Remove your left thumb from the yarn and pull the loose end to tighten the stitch against the needle.

Repeat from * until the required number of stitches has been cast on.
Basic Stitches

Knit Stitches (K)
Once the stitches are cast on, knitting is just a process of transferring the loops from one needle to another.

1. Hold the needle with the cast on stitches in the left hand. With the yarn at the back of the work, insert the right needle from left to right through the front of the first stitch on the left needle.

2. Wrap the yarn from left to right over the tip of the right needle.

3. Pull the yarn back through the stitch, forming a loop on the right needle.

4. Slide the original stitch off the left needle.

To knit the entire row, repeat Steps 1-4 until all the stitches are transferred to the right needle.

Turn the work and place the needle with the stitches on it to the left hand to start the next row.
When knitting every row (also known as garter stitch), both sides of the fabric will have raised horizontal stitches.

Purl Stitches (P)

1. With the yarn at the front of the work, insert the tip of the right needle from right to left through the front of the first stitch on the left needle.

2. Wrap the yarn from the right to left over the tip of the right needle.

3. Pull the yarn back through the stitch, forming a loop on the right needle.

4. Slide the stitch off the left needle.

To purl the entire row, repeat Steps 1-4 until all the stitches are transferred to the right needle.

Turn the work and place the needle with the stitches on it to the left hand to start the next row.
In stockinette stitch, the knit rows are the right side of the work and each stitch resembles a "V". In reverse stockinette stitch, the purl rows are the right side of the work.

Stockinette Stitch (St st)
Stockinette stitch is the most familiar type of knitted fabric and is comprised of alternating knit and purl rows.

1. Knit a stitch. Bring the yarn forward to the front of the work between the left and right needle. Purl the next stitch.

2. Return the yarn to the back of the work between the needles. Knit the next stitch.

Repeat Steps 1 and 2 until all stitches are transferred to the right needle. Stitches that are knit on one row should be purled on the next row and vice versa.

Single Rib (K1, P1)
Ribbing forms a stretchy fabric and is usually found at the bottoms of sweaters and sleeves, neckbands, hat brims and mitten cuffs. When worked as edgings, ribbing is generally worked with smaller needles than the main body of the garment to keep the edges firm and elastic.

Purling every row is also considered garter stitch and makes ridges on both sides of the knitted fabric. Purling is most often used with knit stitches as you will see in the following stitch patterns.
Binding off

Always bind off in pattern. If working in stockinette stitch, this means you will bind off by working all knit stitches if a knit row faces you and purling all the stitches if a purl row faces you. If you are working in ribbing, bind off as if you were continuing to rib. Most other pattern stitches can also be followed during the course of binding off.

1. Knit the first two stitches. * Using the tip of the left needle, lift the first stitch on the right needle up and over the second stitch and drop it off the needle. Knit the next stitch. Repeat from the * until all the stitches have been worked and only one stitch remains on the right needle.

2. Cut the yarn, leaving an 8* end for weaving in. Pull the end of the yarn through the last stitch on the right needle and tug it gently to fasten off the last stitch.

Increasing and Decreasing

Increasing One Stitch (inc)

On a knit row, work into the front and back of the next stitch: knit into the stitch and before slipping it off the left needle, twist the right needle behind the left and knit the same stitch again through the back loop. Slide the original stitch off the left needle—there are now two stitches on the right needle made from the original one.

On a purl row, the method of increasing is similar. Purl into the front of the next stitch, then purl into the back of it before sliding it off the left needle.

Making a Stitch (M1)

Another form of increasing is to work into the strand between two stitches.

1. Insert the right needle from front to back under the horizontal strand that runs between the stitch on the right needle and the stitch on the left needle.
2. Insert the left needle under this strand through the back loop.

3. Knit through the back of the strand to twist the new stitch and prevent a small hole.

Eyelet Increases or Yarn Overs (yo)
An extra stitch can also be formed by making a loop wrapped around the right needle between two stitches which is then knitted or purled on subsequent rows. This wrap forms a small hole which is used as a decorative touch.

A yarn over between two knit stitches: Bring the yarn forward as if to purl a stitch, then wrap the yarn over the top of the needle and knit the next stitch.

A yarn over between two purl stitches: Take the yarn over the top of the right needle, then between the two needles to the front again; purl the next stitch.

Decreasing One Stitch (dec)
The simplest method of decreasing is to simply knit or purl two stitches together as one.

On a knit row, insert the tip of the right needle from left to right through two stitches instead of one, then knit them together as one stitch. This is called knit two together (K2tog).

Slip Stitches

It is often necessary to slip (sl) a stitch from one needle to the other without actually knitting or purling it. This method is often used in shaping or within a stitch pattern and can be worked two ways.

Unless otherwise specified, slip the stitch as if to purl. “Slip the next stitch purlwise” is where the right needle is inserted into the next stitch on the left needle as if to purl, but with the yarn still in back of the work. This method is used when the stitch is worked on the following row.

Slipping a stitch knitwise is done by inserting the needle as if to knit. This method causes the stitch to be twisted which can become a feature of a stitch pattern.

To slip purlwise, insert the right needle into the next stitch on the left needle as if to purl.

Instructions for slipping stitches vary for different stitch patterns, so be sure to follow your pattern to slip knitwise or purlwise.

Cable Stitches

Whether simple or complex, cable patterns add depth and texture to your knitting, and they are easy to learn. Use a cable needle to cross one group of stitches over another, or move them across the background fabric. Your pattern instructions will give you details on how to place and cross the cables.

Cable 4 Back (C4B)

This basic cable consists of four stitches in stockinette stitch against a reverse stockinette stitch background.

1. On a right side row, work to the position of the cable panel and slip the next two stitches to the cable needle.

2. Hold the stitches on the cable needle at the back of the work. Knit the next two stitches from left needle.
3. Now knit the two stitches from the cable needle to form a cable that twists to the right.

Cable 4 Front
On a right side row, work to the position of the cable panel and slip the next two stitches to the cable needle. Hold the stitches on the cable needle at the front of the work. Knit the next two stitches from left needle. Knit the two stitches from the cable needle to form a cable that twists to the left.

Joining New Yarn
To prevent unsightly knots, join new yarn at the beginning of a row wherever possible. To make a perfect join at the end of a row, simply drop the old yarn and start the next row with the new yarn. After working a few stitches, tie the old and new ends in a secure knot. Weave in the yarn ends at finishing. If it is impossible to avoid joining new yarn in the middle of a row, try one of these two methods.

Drop the old yarn when 6” remain. Start work with the new yarn, leaving a 6” end. After a few more inches of knitting have been completed, individually thread the ends through a yarn needle and weave them back and forth for a few inches to secure.

Another method to join yarn is the splice method. When 4” or so of the old yarn remains, pick up the new yarn and work with both yarns until the old yarn runs out. When working the next row, work each doubled stitch as one.

Using Markers
Stitch markers are necessary to denote special stitch panels, to mark armholes when making drop-shoulder garments or to mark the beginning or end of a round in circular knitting. Plastic markers can be purchased, or you can make your own using contrasting yarn as shown below.

Make a slip knot in a short piece of contrasting yarn to form a loop. Place marker on needle. On the following rows or rounds, slip the marker from needle to needle on every row until the pattern is established and you no longer need the marker.
For circular knitting, you may want to leave the marker in place throughout, moving it up as you complete each row.

Knitting with Four Needles

Knitting with four double-point needles forms a seamless piece in areas that are too small for circular needles, such as socks and mittens. Double-point needles have points on both ends, allowing the stitches to slide off either end so that you can knit in the round.

1. Cast on the required number of stitches onto one of the four needles, then evenly divide the stitches onto three needles (or divide them as directed in the pattern instructions).

2. Arrange the three needles into a triangle, being careful to not twist the stitches. The cast on edge should lie on the inside edge of the triangle.

3. With the empty needle, knit the first stitch of needle 1 (the first cast on stitch), pulling yarn tight to avoid a hole between the needles. Continue across the row until needle 1 is empty.

4. With needle 1, knit the first stitch of needle 2 and work same as step 3. Continue in this manner across each needle and for each round, being sure to mark the beginning of each round with a stitch marker.

Tip: To prevent "ladders" between the needles, give the yarn a firm tug when working the second stitch on each needle. This will tighten the first stitch of the working needle and the last stitch of the last needle and will help prevent holes.
Correcting Dropped Stitches

A dropped stitch need not be devastating—it’s an easy problem to fix if you catch it within a few rows of the drop. If you don’t see it until several inches have been worked, there will not be enough yarn around the dropped stitches to correct the problem, and the best solution is to unravel the knitting back to the dropped stitch and reknit these rows.

The easiest method to pick up a dropped stitch is to use a crochet hook. Work with the knit side facing you (turn the work over if you need to because of pattern stitches).

Insert the hook into the free stitch from the front. With the hook pointing up, catch the first strand of the ladder from above it and pull it through the stitch on the hook. Continue in this manner until you’ve worked up through the rows and then replace the stitch on the left needle, being careful not to twist it. If you’ve found more than one dropped stitch, secure the others with a safety pin until you are ready to pick them up.

Working from a Pattern

Before picking up needles and yarn, sit down and read through the pattern. Patterns are written in a language of their own, and this will help you become familiar with special stitches and abbreviations. Although not all publications use the same abbreviations, the terminology will become familiar with a read-through.

Abbreviations

These are standard abbreviations that may appear in this booklet. Any abbreviations specific to a pattern will be given at the beginning of the pattern.

Pattern Repeats and Multiples
Most stitch patterns are made up of sets of stitches that are repeated across the row, and a certain number of rows that are repeated throughout the length of the fabric. If the pattern is symmetrical, it is important that each row begins and ends in the same way to balance the row. This ensures that when a seam is joined, the pattern matches on either side of the seam.

A pattern repeat within knitting instructions is contained within brackets or follows an asterisk *. The extra stitches not included in the pattern repeat are there to balance the row or make it symmetrical and are only worked once. To work out the number of stitches in a pattern repeat, simply add together the number of stitches within the brackets or after the asterisk.

Numbers or instructions in square brackets [ ] should be repeated as stated after the brackets.

Numbers in parentheses ( ) refer to changes for sizing.

Gauge
Gauge is the number of stitches (and spaces) per inch and the number of rows (or rounds) per inch. In many patterns, gauge is specified over 4”.

Your gauge and the gauge specified in the pattern must be the same so that your project will be the correct size. This is especially crucial for projects that must fit. Before starting your project, take the time to make a gauge swatch.

To check gauge, using the same yarn, needles and pattern stitch specified in the instructions, make a swatch that is approximately 6” square. Work in pattern for about 6”, and then bind off. Let the swatch relax for a bit, and then flatten it without stretching to measure.

Using pins, mark off a section of stitches in the center of the swatch that measures 4” square. Count the number of stitches and rows in this 4” section. If they match the gauge, you can start right in on your pattern.

If you have too few stitches, you are working too loosely—change to smaller needles and make another swatch. If you have too many stitches, you are working too tightly—change to larger needles. Keep making swatches and experimenting with needle sizes until you obtain the specified gauge.
Finishing

The importance of proper finishing should never be overlooked. Take time and care when completing your pieces. Many projects only need minor blocking to complete.

Blocking

Many yarns benefit from light blocking. How you block your project will depend on the yarn you use and the type of project. Many projects created by beginners only need light blocking.

Acrylic, manmade or novelty yarns should be wet blocked. Simply wet the pieces with water until very damp (but not dripping). Pin the pieces to shape in a place where they can sit undisturbed until thoroughly dry. Unpin and finish.

Steam blocking is safe for wool and most natural fibers, especially pieces knit from cotton, which tend to lose their shape when wet. Take care with steam or pressing acrylic fibers. Pin pieces to their measurements. Using a handheld steamer or a steam iron, hold the steamer nozzle or iron over the piece and allow the steam to thoroughly penetrate and relax the fibers. Do not touch the hot nozzle or iron to the fibers. Allow the pieces to dry thoroughly, unpin and finish.

Damp blocking is recommended for delicate fibers. Shape and pin dry pieces as for steam blocking. Mist lightly with water in a spray bottle. Allow the pieces to dry thoroughly.

Picking Up Stitches

When the main part of a project is finished, sometimes it is necessary to pick up stitches around an edge to create a border such as a neckband.

To pick up stitches, hold the work with the right side facing you in your left hand. Hold the needle and yarn in your right hand and work from right to left. Insert the needle into the first row from the edge and wrap the yarn around the tip of the needle. Pull the yarn through and leave it on the right needle, creating a stitch. The pattern instructions may specify how many stitches to pick up or they may instruct you to pick up stitches evenly. When working along the cast on or bind of edge, pick up a stitch through both loops of each stitch. When working along the edge of rows, a rule of thumb is to pick up three stitches for every four rows. Check frequently to be sure the knitting is not puckered (too few stitches picked up) or stretched (too many stitches picked up).

When picking up stitches along a side edge, pick up the stitch between the first and second stitch of the row—a whole stitch in from the edge. For bulky or super bulky yarn, it may be necessary to work into the first stitch, a half stitch in from the edge. Be consistent with how you pick up stitches.
Assembly

Use a yarn needle and the same yarn you have used for the project to sew the seams. If the yarn is bulky or textured, use a finer, smooth yarn in a matching color.

Mattress Stitch Seam

1. With the right sides facing, lay the pieces flat with edges next to each other. Insert the needle between the first and second stitches on the first row. Slide the needle under two rows, then bring it back to the front between the first and second stitch of the row.

2. On the opposite side and, working under two rows throughout, repeat this zig-zag process, taking the needle under the strands that correspond exactly to the other side and going into the hole that the last stitch on that side came of, being careful not to miss any rows.

The secret to the Mattress Stitch is to keep the seam elastic by working very loosely for a few inches, and then pulling the sewing yarn so that the stitches pull together. Give the seam a little tug from the top and bottom to add a bit of stretch back in.

Grafting

Grafting invisibly joins two pieces through the live working stitches. This technique is frequently used to close the toe of socks or the tips of mittens.

With right sides facing you, lay the pieces to be joined with the needles parallel. Each needle must have the same number of stitches. Cut the working yarn, leaving a long end, and thread this end through a yarn needle. Place the needle with the yarn end at the back.

1. Insert the needle as if to purl in the first stitch of front needle. Pull yarn through, leaving the stitch on the needle.

2. Insert the needle as if to knit into the first stitch of back needle. Pull yarn through, leaving the stitch on the needle.

3. Insert the yarn needle as if to knit in the first stitch of the front needle (the same stitch as before) and slide this stitch off the needle. Insert the yarn needle into the next stitch on the front needle as if to purl, but leave the stitch on the needle.
4. Insert the yarn needle as if to purl in the next stitch on the back needle, and slide this stitch off the needle. Insert the yarn needle in next stitch on back needle as if to knit. Pull the yarn through, but leave this stitch on the needle.

Continue repeating step 3 and 4 until all stitches are grafted, pulling carefully as you work. When last stitch is worked, weave in remaining end.

Chain Crochet Ties

A crocheted chain can be attached to an edge and serve as ties, as for the Baby Love Sweater on page 33.

1. To make a chain, start with a slip knot. Make a circle with yarn, then pull a loop through it.

2. Insert the hook in the loop. Pull gently to close the loop and slide the knot up to the hook.

3. Wrap yarn from back to front over the hook; draw the yarn through to form a new loop without tightening up the previous one. Repeat until chain is length desired.
Using two colors of yarn held together as one gives this scarf nice texture and makes it quicker to knit, too.
